

The super Sport Relief quiz

Let's get quizzical.

Feast your eyes on this bumper list of sporty brain teasers – there's no better way to fundraise than with our ready-made Sport Relief quiz.

Get work colleagues, friends, heck, even your old dependable family together and follow the simple steps below. If everyone pays to play, you'll raise cash to help change lives in the UK and the world's poorest countries, so well done and good luck!

Step 1 Find a venue

First things first, find a suitable venue to host your quiz. This could be in a social space at work, at home or in your local pub.

Step 2 Spread the word

Promote your quiz by emailing colleagues, friends and family or invite them on Facebook. You can even download our event poster which you can customise to include your own unique quiz info – just head to sportrelief.com/poster

Step 3 Choose a quizmaster

Nominate a quizmaster to read out the questions and to make sure everyone is playing by the rules. Maybe have a ban on mobile phones during the quiz?

Step 4 Raise some cash

When the quizmaster has been chosen, get them to ask everyone to pay a small donation to take part in the quiz. Or, if people are playing in teams, ask each team to pay a larger fee to enter.

Step 5 Mix it up

You don't have to do the whole quiz from start to finish. With six rounds of eight questions, feel free to pick and choose which questions you use for your quiz.

Step 6 Check the answers

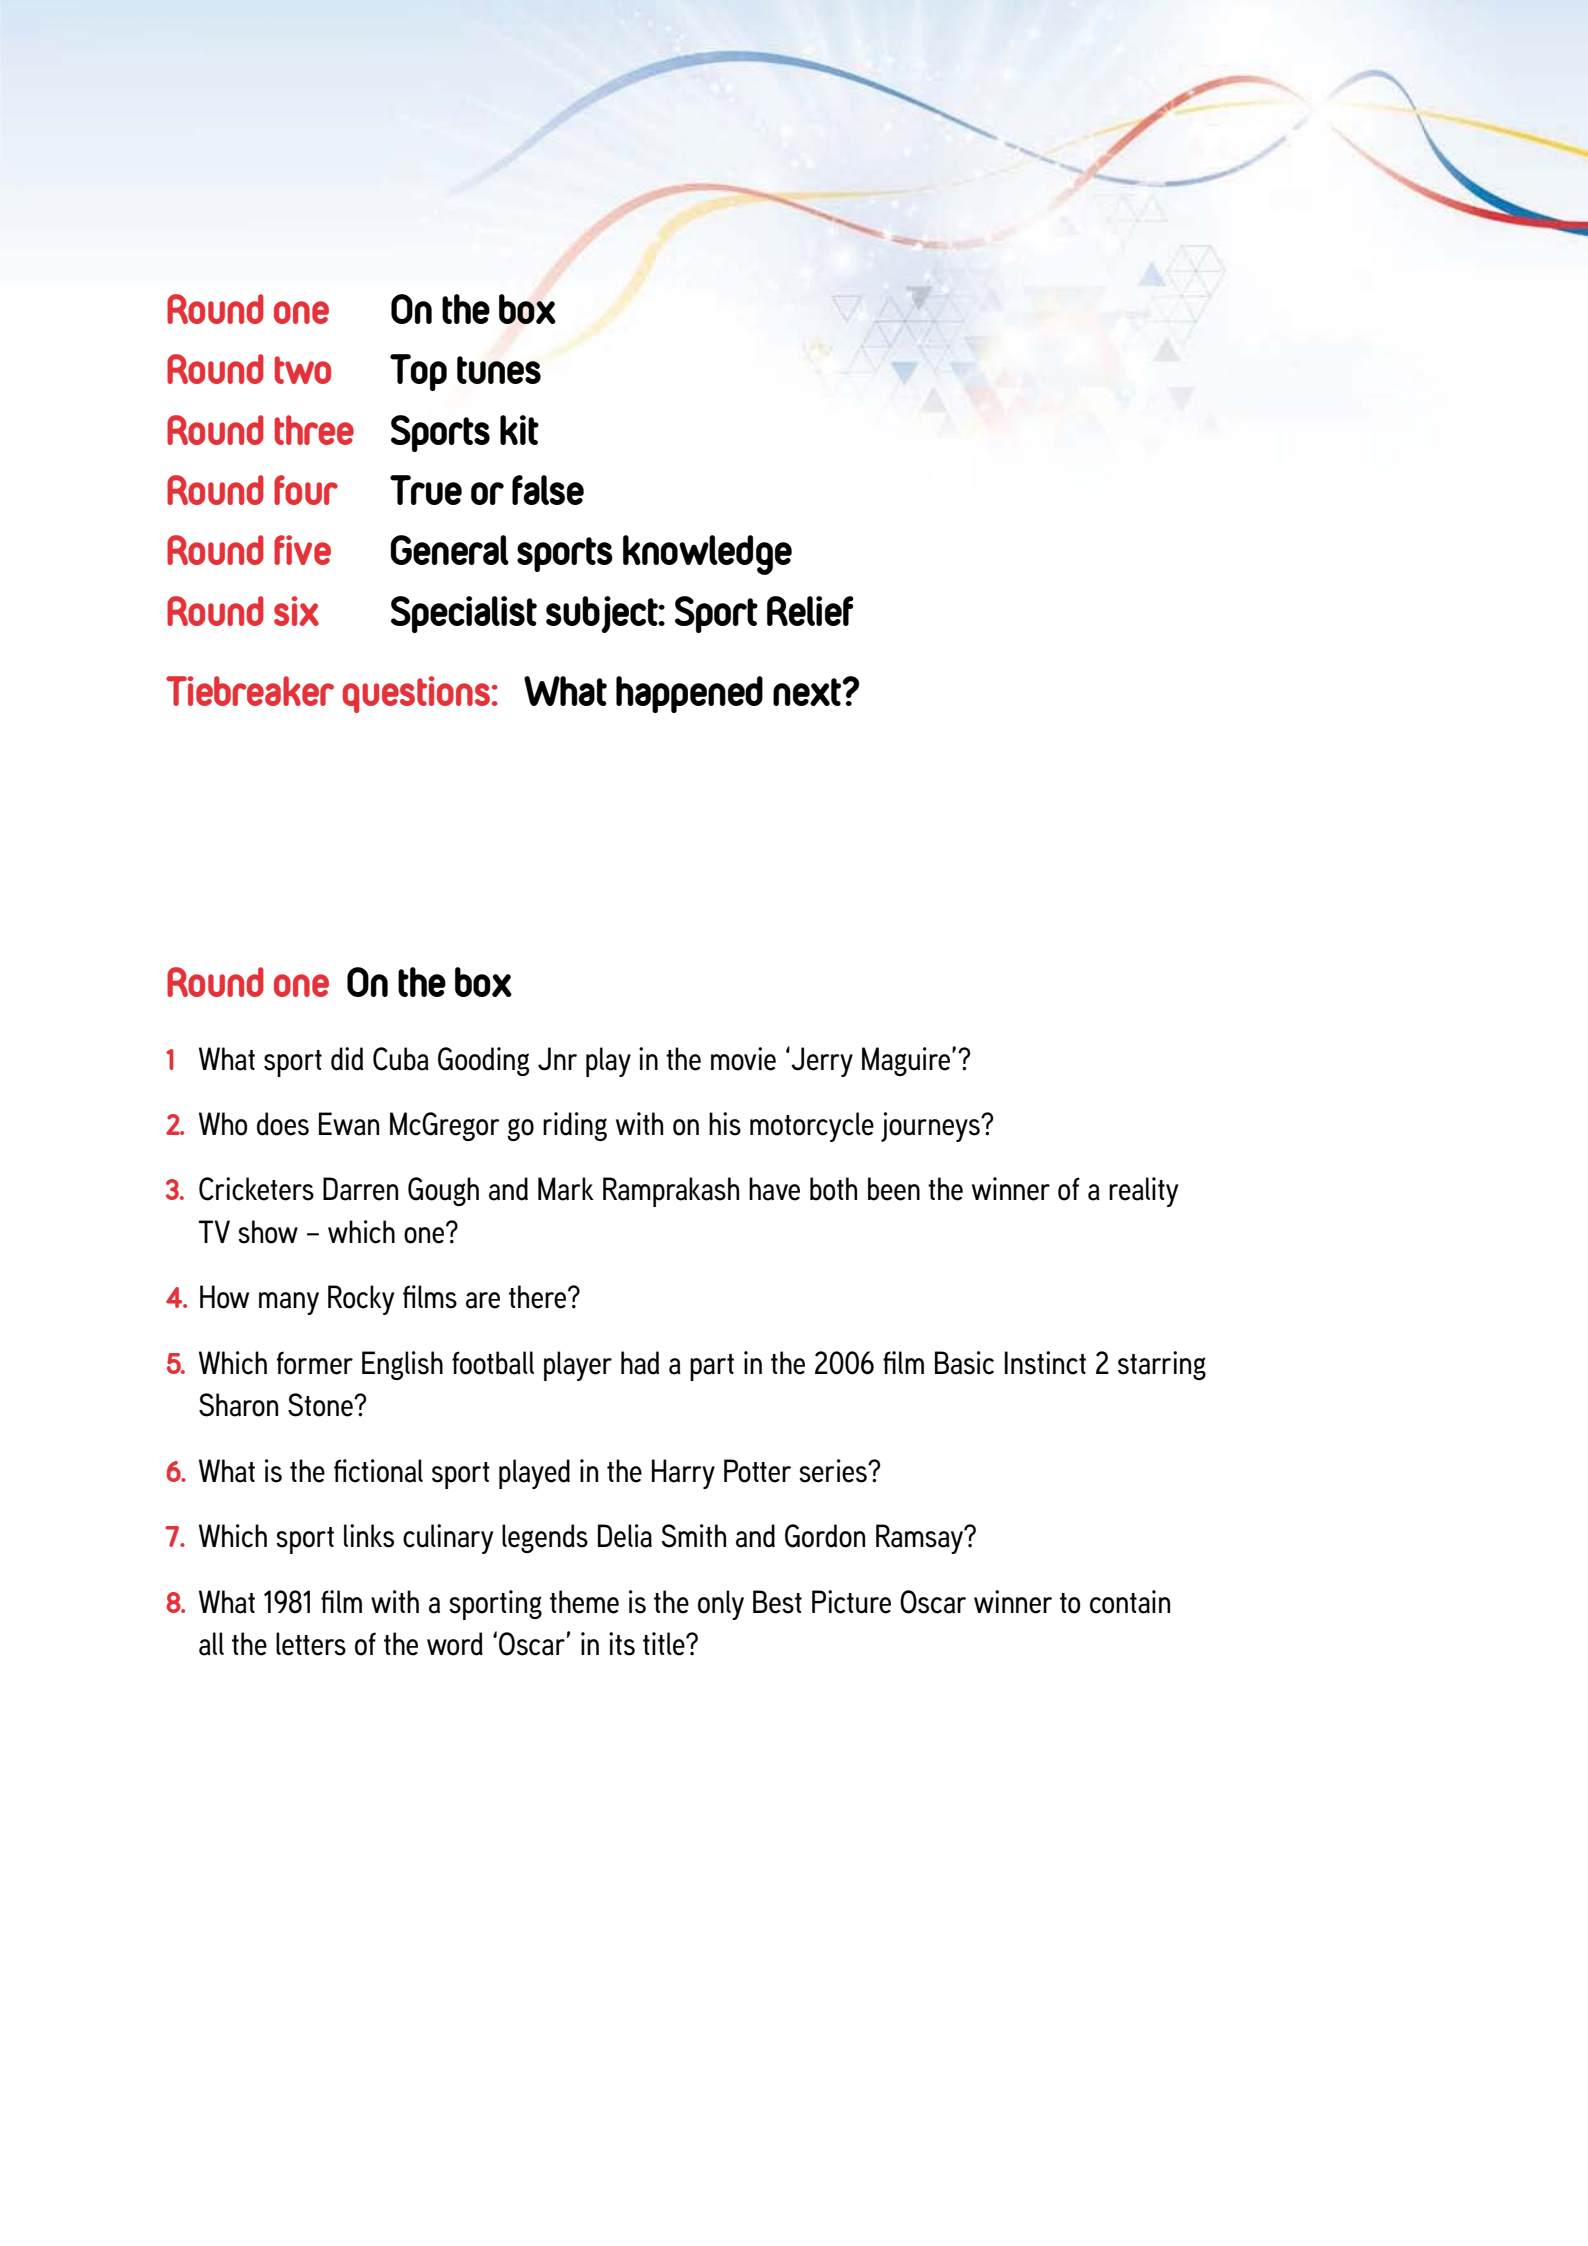

Print off the answer sheets and let opposing teams or individual players mark each others' quiz sheet.

TOP TIP

To up the stakes, get someone you know to donate a prize for the lucky winner or winning team. And a booby prize will cheer up the losers too!

A big thanks goes to QuizQuizQuiz Ltd for supplying questions and answers for this quiz.
